

PARENTS – KNOW YOUR RIGHTS UNDER ARIZONA LAW

Have you read the Arizona Department of Education Parental Rights Handbook?

It states: The liberty of parents to direct the upbringing, education, health care and mental health of their children is a fundamental right.

All parental rights are reserved to a parent of a minor child without obstruction or interference from this state, any political subdivision of this state, any other governmental entity, or any other institution, including:

- The right to direct the education of the minor child.
- All rights of parents identified in title 15, including the right to access and review all records relating to the minor child.
- The right to direct the upbringing of the minor child.
- The right to direct the moral or religious training of the minor child.
- The right to make health care decisions for the minor child, including rights pursuant to sections 15-873, 36-2271 and 36-2272, unless otherwise prohibited by law.
